

TECNOCOM understands that by sending their Curriculum Vitae, you have authorized us to treat your personal information for the sole purpose of their integration into our processes for selecting staff. The above data will be included in a file owned TECNOCOM.

In relation to this, we want to emphasize that always appears between our commitments to ensure the integrity and security of personal information provided to it being taken all safety measures required by the law of personal data protection force.

The processing of your data will be limited solely to the purposes of considering his application for a job in TECNOCOM and businesses of his group, keeping such data, in the absence of an application against yours, for the maximum space of one (1) Year.

In any case, you may exercise their right of access, rectification, cancellation or opposition in relation to data furnished, in the manner provided for in existing legislation, being able to go for it TECNOCOM as responsible for the file LOPD at the following address lopd@tecnocom.com